A Love These Books

By Marcus Chacos

A kids book with success principles. I have all of John Wooden's Inch and Miles series now and my kids and I love them. They are not earth shattering, you don't read them with tears in your eyes... you read them knowing the simple story models for your children timeless principles and the fact they keep coming back to them, asking them to be read again assures you the children are learning a valuable lesson (which is more than I can say about most kids books).

Don't hesitate to buy this, but at the same time don't place unwarranted expectations, it's still a kids book!

Inch and Miles Save the Day!

By Amazon Customer

A neat little story that helps advance the values of Coach Wooden's Pyramid of Success. We probably should have started with the first one as this is apparently the second book in the series and the description makes no mention of this...

Good for Kids

By Mark Arnott

We have a lot a kids books at Arnott Kenpo Karate, and always look for books we want the kids to be reading. All of Coach Wooden's lessons are heartfelt and useful. The stories are fun, the illustrations are nice, and the kids read the books without parental urging. Just what we'd hoped for.
