So Fun and Accessible

By L. Mallette

I first learned of Sue when I read the blog of a lady who had taken two classes with her. WOW, did I love the work and wished I could have been there. This book is the next best thing. Sue doesn't waste time and try our patience by writing long paragraphs about the materials as though we are neophytes who just woke up yesterday not knowing what a paintbrush does. She jumps right in with fabulous ideas and techniques and examples that get you excited about the possibilities. Better yet, she does not present only art that someone with exceptional skill and long years of practice can achieve. These pieces are do-able by anyone and the results are fun and fantastic!

I have only read halfway through this book and already completed two pieces; just couldn't wait! Thanks so much for the inspiration, Sue. I hope to take a class with you in "real life" soon.

The "at home mom/dad" will find great projects to fit all ages

By karen

This book will appeal to everyone! The art teacher will be inspired. The "at home mom/dad" will find great projects to fit all ages. The beginning artist and the seasoned artist will find projects that inspire, challenge and thrill them. And, anyone who ever longed to try an art project but was afraid to do it, BUY THIS BOOK AS YOU WILL GET HOOKED ON THE PROJECTS AND FALL IN LOVE WITH ART! The author has a gift for easy to follow directions leading to a stellar result! There is a material list, a great introduction, awesome, hand drawn pictures and it is truly a really "fun read". You feel like the author is talking to you, personally, and by the way, she likes you! This is my first Amazon review for any product, yet I always read the reviews and buy accordingly. You buy this book and you will fall in love with it. Pure and simply, it is awesome.... yes it is!
